ABOUT THIS PRODUCT

There are many ways to use the Spring Word Wall Cards!

- Hang them on the classroom word wall.
- Place them on a binder ring and place in the writing or reading center.
- Keep them on the pocket chart. Children can use them, as needed and return them when finished.
- Use with magnets to spell words.
- Cut between the picture and word to make a matching game on the pocket chart.
- Practice clapping out syllables with the words.
- Copy the words using chalkboards, whiteboards, magicboards or paper.
- Rainbow write the words.
- Use a variety of writing materials to write the words - markers, colored pencils, Twistables and scented ones, too!
- Use letter stamps to stamp the words onto paper.
- Make the words using playdough. Roll the playdough into "snakes" and form each letter. Place the letters on plastic placemats or cookie sheets.
- Use playdough letter stamps to stamp each word.
